

Fourth Eothinon Doxasticon

Mode 4.

π
q

(M) (Π) Glo - ry to the Fa - - ther and the

(N) (Π)
Son π and the Ho - ly Spir - - - it π
q

(Δ) (B)
It was ear - - - ly dawn Δ and the

(Π) (B)
wom-en came to Your tomb O Christ π But Your
q

(Π)
bod - y which they longed for was no - where to be found π While they were per - plexed a - bout

(B) (Δ)
this π the men in daz - - - zling ap - par - - el
q

(Π) (B)
stood by and said to them π Why do you

(Δ) (Π)
look a - mong the dead Δ for the One q

(B)
who is a - - live π He has ris - en as

He told you Why do you not re - member His words And they be - lieved them and pro - claimed what they had seen But the good news seemed to the Dis - ci - ples an i - dle tale this is how slow they still were to un - der -

- stand But Pe - ter ran and saw and go - ing home he glo - ri - fied Your won -

- ders