Lauds 4. Mode pl. 1. Pa=D. Rejoice.

Diatonic

The mouth of the righteous shall meditate on wisdom, and his tongue shall speak of judg - ment. Tor - rents of your di-

- vine prayers, O Saint, dried up the lake-let that had for - mer-ly caused a row. O wise one, you stopped the way-ward stream from o - ver - flow - ing its banks with your staff that sprout - ed and be-came a tree. You lev - eled the al - tar stones of the de - mons, O Greg-o - ry. By your most ar - dent sup-pli-

- ca - tions to God on high, you have brought an end to the 8  win - ter of un-be-lief. You gave as - sur-ance un-to souls by 8  mir - a-cles, lead-ing them un-to the great Ben-e - fac - tor, who

8  has re - ward - ed you wor-thi - ly. To Him pray in - tent-

8  - ly and pe - ti-tion Him to send down great mer-cy on our souls.
