

Kathismata.

Mode 1. Ke. The soldiers keeping watch.

(K)

From Pi - late Jo - seph asked for Your wor - ship-ful Bo - dy.

He wraps it in a clean lin - en shroud and with spic - es

a - noints it for bur - i - al and he lays it in his new tomb. Then at ear - ly dawn the wom - en came with their ointments, and they cried, "Show us the Res - ur - rec - tion, O Sav - ior, as You had fore - told, O Christ."

Glory.

✠

And they cried, "Show us the Res - ur - rec - tion, O Sav - ior, as You had fore - told, O Christ."

Both now.

✠

(K)

As - tound - ed were the hosts of thē An - gels, be - hold - ing

how He, who sits a - bove in the bos - om of the Fa - ther, is laid in a sep - ul - cher, thē Im - mor - tal One, as a corpse. He is sur - round - ed by an - gel - ic ar - mies, who praise Him and, to - geth - er with the dead in Ha - des, give glo - ry to Him, their Cre - a - tor and Lord.

✠