Κα- τα-νο-ῶ- ων ὁ Προ-φή- η-της, τὴν ἐπ' ἐ-σχά-των σου Χρι-στὲ ἔ- ε-λευ-σιν, ἀ-νε-βό- ο- α· τὴν σὴν εἰ- σα-κή-κο-α Κύ- υ-ρι-ε δυ-να-στέι- ει- αν, ὅ- τι πάν-τας τοῦ σῶ-σαι, τοὺς χρι- στού-ους σου ἐ- λή- η- λυ-υ-θας.

Κατανοῶν ὁ Προφήτης, τὴν ἐπ' ἐσχάτων σου Χριστὲ ἔλευσιν, ἀνεβόα· τὴν σὴν εἰσακήκοα Κύριε δυναστείαν, ὅτι πάντας τοῦ σῶσαι, τοὺς χριστούς σου ἐλήλυθας.

Ode 4. Irmos

The prophet, O Christ, perceiving your coming in the last times, cried out: I have heard of your power, Lord, for you have come to save all your anointed. Archimandrite Ephrem

Prophet Habakkuk considered Your coming in the latter times,* Christ, and to You he cried out,* "O Lord, I have heard the report of Your mighty power,* that You came for the salvation of all Your anointed ones." S. Dedes

Ode iv. Canon II.

Monarch of monarchs, the only from the only,* Logos who came forth from the uncaused Father,* as Benefactor You sent out Your unerring,* equipotent Spirit unto the Apostles,* as they sing, Glory be unto Your might, O Lord.
