Troparion 1.

⁶

(B) Glo - ry to You, our God, glo - ry to You!
 (B)
 Of old by man - y vi - sions, You re - vealed the sym - bols of Your bur - i - al. But what You once_ kept se - cret, O
 (Δ)
 Mas - ter, now, as God and man, You clear - ly showed to those in

 O_ Lord."_

Glory. Troparion 2.

(B) (N)
 Sav-ior, when You ex-tend-ed Your hands, You u-nit-ed
 (B)
 things that had been di-vid-ed. By Your con-fine-ment
 (Δ)
 in the shroud and the sep-ul-cher, You set free those
 (Γ) (Δ) (B)
 who were fet-tered. To You they cry a-loud, "No one is holy, but You, O Lord."

Both now. Troparion 3.

(B) (N)
 You, un-con-tain-a-ble Mas-ter, were con-fined by the (B) tomb and seals, of Your own will. By Your ac-tions as (Δ)
 God, O Friend of man, You made Your pow-er known to
