

Katavasiae for Triodion 1 & 4. Mode pl. 2. $Vu=E$.

Soft Chromatic E

G

8 The host of Is - ra - el tra - versed the sea on foot as if walk-ing

8 o - ver land; and as they be - held there - in the pur - su - er Phar-aoh

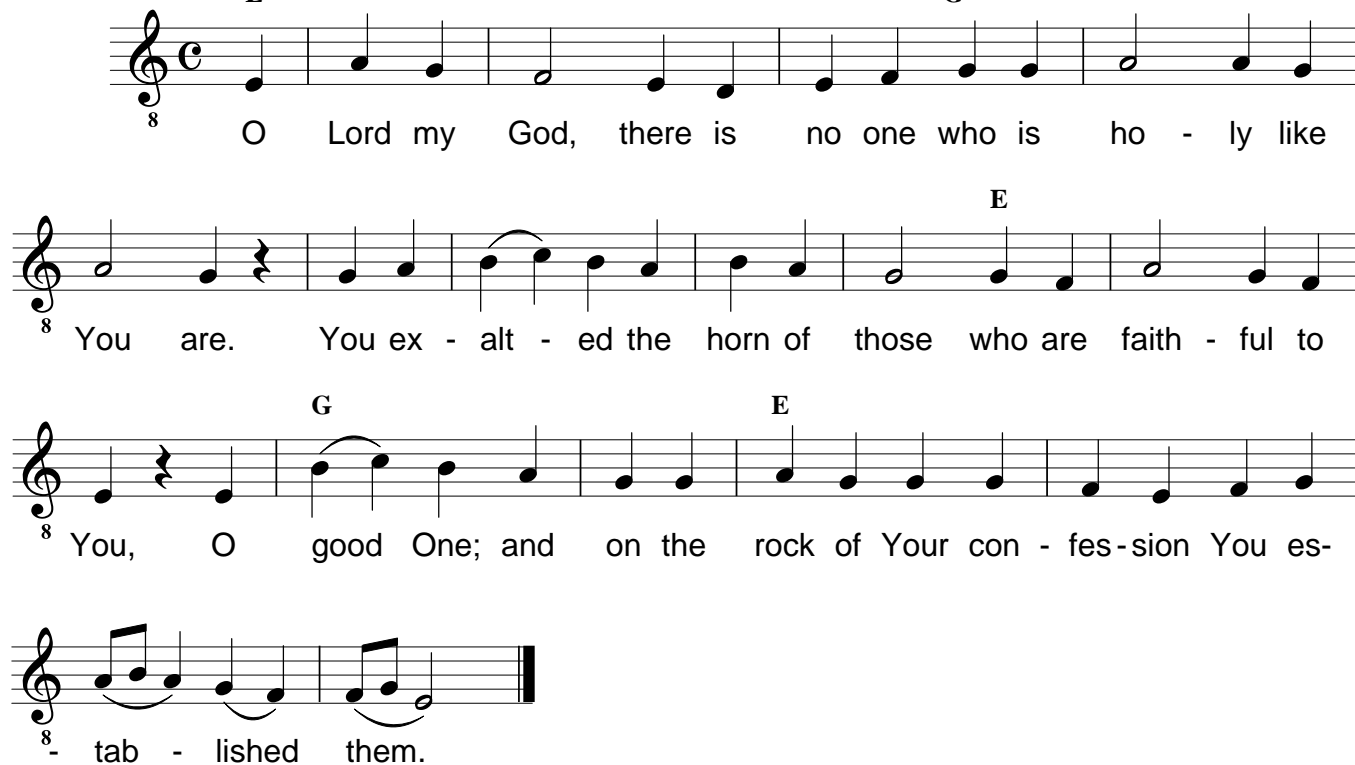

8 drown, they cried, "Let us sing to God a can - ti - cle of vic - tor-

8 - y."

Ode iii

E

G

8 O Lord my God, there is no one who is ho - ly like

8 You are. You ex - alt - ed the horn of those who are faith - ful to

8 You, O good One; and on the rock of Your con - fes-sion You es-

8 - tab - lished them.

Ode iv

8 ^G "O Christ, my strength are You, my God and Lord are ^F

^E 8 You," the di - vine con-gre - ga - tion, apt-ly for God, sings in cho-rus,

^G 8 cry-ing out to Him in pu - ri - ty of mind, as she cel - e-brates the ^E

8 feast in the Lord.

Ode v

8 ^E With Your di - vine light, O good One, shine on the souls of ^G

^E 8 those who long - ing - ly rise to You ear - ly, I sup - pli - cate,

^F 8 so that they may know You, the ver - y God, Word of God, who ^G

^E 8 call them to re - turn from the gloom of - fen - ces bring.

Ode vi

U G E G

8 Per - ceiv - ing the o - pen sea of tem - po - ral life to rise and

E D

8 bil - low with the surg - ing waves of temp - ta - tions, and flee - ing for

G

8 ref - uge in Your calm port, I cry to You, "Raise my life from cor -

E

8 - rup - tion, O most mer - ci - ful Lord."

Ode vii

G

8 Once the An - gel caused the fie - ry fur - nace to e - mit dew

F E

8 to re - fresh the three ho - ly youths. The Chal - de - ans were, by com -

D G

8 - mand of God, com - plete - ly burnt. And there - fore the ty - rant was con -

E

8 - vinced to cry a - loud, "O God of our fa - thers, bless - ed are You!"

