For the Saint. Idiomelon 1. Mode 2. Di=G.

Soft Chromatic

From the morning watch until night; from the morning watch until night, let

Is - ra - el hope in the Lord. Mar - tyr fans all, come now, let us spir - it - ual - ly make mer - ry and cel - e - brate! To - day, the mar - tyr The-o-dore is of - fer - ing a mys - ti - cal ban - quet, which makes us, who are fans of feast days, so glad, that we shout to him: "We sa - lute you and say, Re - joice, O un - de - feat - ed med - al - ist! You crushed to the ground the threats made by the ty - rants. Re - joice, for you gave your clay bod-y o-ver to tor - ture for the sake of Christ God! Re - joice, for by man - y tri - als you were shown to be a tried and true sol-dier of the heav - en - ly ar - my! There-fore we en - treat you, O a - dorn-

- ment of mar - tyrs: In - ter - cede on be - half of our souls!